SUMMARY

---

Self-motivated Web3 and full-stack developer with experience building production-grade apps. Skilled in clean code, scalability, performance optimization, and delivering high-quality web applications.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Nov 2025

- Contributed to Anchor framework which is used to build Solana smart contract. The title of the issue was "IDL Support for Custom Vector Length Discriminators". And I fixed it by creating macro.
- Contributed to ElectronJS which is Gsoc organisation. The title of the issue was "Can't put a space in app name". This issue was simple, , fixed it by wrapping into string."
- Contributed to Wincode which Rust serialization and deserialization library.

PROJECTS

---

Dex Solana orderbook GitHub Link

A modular Solana DEX with an on-chain orderbook, built with Anchor and Next.js, featuring real-time order matching, event queue, and off-chain indexing for high-performance trading.

Decentralised Chess GitHub Link

A decentralized chess platform where two players wager SOL in a trustless escrow smart contract. Play chess, winner takes all. Built on Solana blockchain

Crashed GitHub Link

A modern, real-time crash-style gambling game built on Solana with provably fair gaming mechanics. Time your exit before the multiplier crashes!

RealTime Chat App GitHub Link

Developed a real-time messaging app using Next.js, TypeScript, and WebSockets. Implemented a custom SocketProvider for managing WebSocket connections, ensuring efficient communication and lifecycle management

CancelCourt GitHub Link

A playful, on-chain protocol where users anonymously submit "cases" (trends, behaviors, influencers, brands) for the community to vote on—should it be canceled or redeemed? Built on Solana for Gen Z's love of social commentary, irony, and collective action.
